SA: 10.03.2015	Hearing: 18.06.2015	Decision: 23-6-2015
Result: Disposed of with direction.

Parties Present:

1. Appellant is not present. Public authority is represented by Mr. M. K. Shukla and Giriraj Prasad.

FACTS:

2. Appellant through his RTI application sought copy of documents submitted by Major (Dr.) Tara Chand Yadav with the application showing that he is retired, copy of rent agreement & NOC. Having received no reply, appellant filed first appeal. First appellate authority replied that information asked regarding 3rd party is in capacity of fiduciary relationship, which can be denied under section 8(1)(e) of the RTI Act, 2005. Unsatisfied, appellant approached the Commission.

Proceedings Before the Commission:

3. The Commission directs the respondent authority to examine whether copy of rent agreement sought with reference to the office of the firm to run security agency was given, if so, copy of rent agreement and NOC had to be shared with the appellant. The Commission finds there is possibility of security firm running from residential quarters, it is in public interest. Therefore, Commission directs the respondent authority to provide copy of rent agreement of the office of the security agencies to the appellant within 21 days from the date of receipt of this order.
